WHAT'S NEW IN OUR LIBRARY?

Thanks to parents purchasing books through Scholastics, we were able to purchase a few new books for our library. Along with our Scholastic books, we also received some new donation books. Please check out our school catalogue to reserve the following books!

This book has everything you need to know about medieval castles, including knights, jousting, sieges, drawbridges, and forts. Learn about castle design, from the

This book has a few bits left in! Inside you'll find out what happens when a volcano turns nasty whether you'd survive at the frozen poles how a frog can help you get a drink in the desert Hold on tight as you embark on a whistle-stop trip around the globe, taking in everything from the perishing poles to desperate deserts, stormy weather to earth-shattering earthquakes. Crammed full of far-out facts, it's the ultimate Horrible Geography guide to the planet. Geography has never been so horrible!

use is the seventh book of Andy Griffiths and Terry Denton's wacky treehouse adventures, where the laugh-out-loud story is told through a combination of text and fantastic cartoon-style illustrations. This book is one of six new books from this series that we just bought for the library. We are thrilled to FINALLY have books by the internationally bestselling author Andy Griffiths in our library in English.

Granddad on a grand adventure. An exquisite portrait of the bond between a small boy and his beloved Grandpa - this book takes readers on an incredible journey with Spitfires over London and Great Escapes through the city in a high octane adventure full of comedy and heart. The eighth novel from number one bestselling author, David Walliams. Please visit our library catalogue for other titles by this author.
