

A NOTE FROM MRS RASEN

Dear Friends,

We are preparing ourselves for Book Week which will begin next Monday. We have many activities planned despite COVID.

Unfortunately, our annual Book Swap has been cancelled for this year. That said, we will still have our Reading in Strange Places Photo Gallery as well as reading BINGO on offer. As always, if you have a question, please email me: gwynne.rasen@gjovikis.no

Happy reading, Mrs Rasen
